

Nicole Raymond Award

The Federation bestows this Award to a person, group of persons or organization in recognition of a distinguished contribution to the advancement of the labor movement, or to the cause and/or public profile of post-secondary education. It is awarded by the Federation in memory of the late Professor Nicole Raymond of the Université de Moncton, who has contributed to academic life through teaching, research activities and involvement in professional associations.

Award recipients:

2023: Greg Allain, ABPPUM and CUPE NB	2003: Ian Fraser, STU
2022: Geoff Martin, MAFA	2002: George P. Semeluk, UNB
2020: Allan Reid, AUNBT	2001: George DeBenedetti, MTA
2019: Stephen Law, MAFA	2000: Claudia Whalen, STU
2018: Jeannette Gaudet, FAUST and Andrew Irwin, MAFA	1999: Richard McGaw, UNB
2015: Paul Deguire, UMCM and Lloyd M. Waugh, UNB	1998: Claude Dionne, UMCM
2014: Robin Vose, STU	1997: Gwendolyn Ebbett, MTA (Windsor)
2013: Moira McLaughlin, STU and Dennis Desroches, STU	1996: UNB Teaching Centre
2012: Rick Hudson, MTA	1995: Elmer Tory, MTA
2010: Susan Prior, STU	1994: S.T.G. Tim Andrew, CESPM/MPHEC
2009: Miriam Jones, UNB	1993: C.W.J. Willie Elliot, PEI
2007: ABPPUM	1992: Jon Thompson, UNB
2006: Gerry Clarke, UNB	1991: Jeanne d'Arc Gaudet, UMCS
2005: Thilo Joerger, MTA	1990: Edgar Léger and Arsène Richard, UMCM
2004: Gary D. Long, UMCE	1988: Allan Sharp, UNB

The FNBFA is proud to present award recipients, usually at the Federation's Annual General Meeting, with a unique piece of pottery or pewter made by a New Brunswick artisan.